

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Concord, N. H.—Final briefs for extradition of Harry K. Thaw presented. New York authorities claim right to detain Thaw until they believe him safe to be at large.

Palm Beach, Fla.—B. F. Keith, owner of theater circuit bearing his name, dropped dead on 20th anniversary of opening of his Boston house.

New York. — Robert Friedman, bridge engineer, hurled himself from 25th story of new Municipal Building down six-foot square shaft. Dead.

Peoria, Ill.—Mrs. August H. Siebel found husband dead. Revolver in hand. Suicide.

London.—E. T. Adams, Oxford student, won hammer throw in inter-university sports of Queens Club. Throw of 123 feet 7 inches.

Menominee, Mich.—Several hundred employes of Menominee and Marinette Paper Co. threaten to strike unless advance of 25 cents a day is immediately granted.

Albany, N. Y.—McClelland-Thorn bill, which its authors declare simply legalizes practice of medicine by Christian Science healers, passed assembly. Now goes to Gov. Glynn.

Trenton, N. J.—Resolution protesting against proposed repeal by Congress of free tolls clause in Panama act defeated in assembly.

Philadelphia.—Edward Stoughill, New York, former employe Cook Tourist Agency, arrested for embezzling $5,000, says he owes downfall to love for a woman.

Leavenworth, Kan.—For first time in history of War Dep't a military convict, Arthur D. Sullivan, was restored to the colors by order of Sec'y of War Garrison.

Rome.—Pope will hold consistory latter part of April when several cardinals will be chosen to fill vacancies in sacred college.

New York.—French liner Latour-naine with 550 cabin and steerage passengers, badly crippled at sea according to wireless.

Springfield, Ill.—Albert S. Boyd, Decatur, accused of passing worthless checks in dozen Illinois cities, returned here charged with working confidence game.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Chalmers Ham-mill, special prosecutor in charge of investigation of alleged election frauds, announced himself as candidate for prosecuting attorney of Vigo county.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Ernest McWilliams, 15, who robbed gun shop and held 25 officers at bay while enacting his ideal of "movie," dead from 15 bullet wounds.

Fannystelle, Manitoba.—F. Francz, real estate dealer, Paw Paw, Ill., burned to death in room when fire destroyed hotel.

Mexico City.—Rebel forces under Gen. Villa at Torreón routed and 700 killed by Federals, according to report.

London.—Suffragets fired residence of Major General Sir Hugh McCalmont, White Abbey, Ireland. $75,000 loss.

Brisbane, Aus.—18 person drowned when French steamship St. Paul struck rock and sank when entering harbor.

Eustis, Neb.—Wm. Denzein, recently paroled from Nebraska penitentiary, where he was sentenced to serve from 1 to 7 years for bigamy, asks court to free him from matrimonial bonds that bind him to two wives.

Milwaukee.—Judge Landis, Chicago, sitting in Judge Geiger's branch of federal court, imposed sentences ranging from 3 to 8 months in house of correction and $100 fine for violations of Indian liquor law.

Boston. — Massachusetts legislature approved amendment to constitution striking word "male" from qualification of voters.

Milwaukee.—Verdict of $12,000 returned by jury in circuit court in favor of Frank Beima, 12, against